Nightlife

The nightlife in Luxembourg City is rich: the Rives de Clausen with English and Irish pubs, old city (place d'Armes, place Guillaume, behind the Palais Grand Ducal...)

Things to do

Before or after conference lectures and for accompanying guests there are plenty of things to see and do in Luxembourg. Activities and tours can be seen and planned at the Luxemburger city tourist office <https://www.luxembourg-city.com/en>

Philharmonie

Designed by French architect Christian de Portzamparc, the Philharmonie (Salle de Concerts Grande-Duchesse Joséphine-Charlotte) is located at the Place de l'Europe, near the ECCL.

The artistic programme of the Hall covers a wide spectrum of classical and contemporary music, including jazz, world music and children's concerts. Moreover, this cultural institution is home to the Orchestre Philharmonique du Luxembourg.

Address

1, Place de l'Europe
1499 Luxembourg

The Bock Casemates

Listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site, the Bock Casemates are Europe's most beautiful rock top with underground tunnels carved into the rock - a subterranean defense system made up of kilometers of tunnels that were initially carved in the 17th century. Visitors can enjoy stunning views of the lower town through the many openings and loopholes. You can book a tour and learn about the legend of beautiful Melusina at <https://www.luxembourg-city.com/en/place/tour/bock-casemates>

MUDAM-Museum of Modern Art Grand –Duc Jean

The famous architect I.M. Pei chose the historic site of the Fort Thüngen for the construction of the Musée d'Art Moderne Grand-Duc Jean (Mudam). Mudam, located on the Kirchberg-Plateau, between the Place de l'Europe and the Old Town of Luxembourg, invites the public to an exploration of contemporary art.

Chemin de la Corniche

Known as Europe's most beautiful balcony, this elevated path offers sweeping panoramas of the Alzette River valley, with its picturesque old houses and winding streets below. The contrast between the ancient city walls and the lush greenery of the valley creates a sense of timeless beauty. Every turn along the Chemin de la Corniche reveals something new.
